

SUN BEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

Tomorrow night the annual high school play will be presented at the Masonic hall. It promises to be a good show and well worthy of patronage. It represents a lot of hard work and study by the students and their director and their efforts to please you should be rewarded with a capacity attendance.

We are again reminded of the good work being done in the capital by our legislators, Senator Seawell and Assemblyman Thurman. That they are interested and working for our welfare was evidenced in their action in having Assembly Bill 320 altered that we may still enjoy the opening of our trout fishing season on May 1. Other bills of equal importance to the rural and resort areas are being closely watched by our legislators to prevent harmful legislation to this region.

Speaking of legislation, we are reminded of the potential damage which could easily result from the passage of assembly bills 2658-59-60 which would provide a greatly increased tax and license fee upon beer, wines and distilled spirits. We believe there is such a thing as "riding a good horse to death" and that at the present time these beverages are being taxed and dispensed licensed amply. Additional taxation could well result in curtailment of production, cutting out employment and wages. To quote a contemporary: "It is unjust to impose upon any one industry, which is so inextricably a source of livelihood for a large percentage of our population, taxation so drastic as to effect the security of their jobs." The return of beer, wines and liquors provided a good mark at which to aim when additional revenue for governmental purposes was needed and we were all for it, but the thing can be carried to excess and additional penalties for providing employment to many hundreds is unjust, in our opinion.

RAIL PIONEER, WELL KNOWN HERE IS DEAD IN PALO ALTO

J. W. Graham, 96, rail pioneer who was well known in Truckee where he often visited while traveling the division during the period between 1900 and 1917, died at his home in Palo Alto on Monday after a long and interesting life.

Graham helped in building the first railroad out of Chicago after the civil war and supervised roadbed grading for the old Central Pacific Railroad through the Sierra. He was resident engineer for the C. P. for 15 years with headquarters at Cisco.

Arrests Will Be Made For Taking Fawns

Animal lovers who make a practice of capturing young fawns are subject to arrest and severe punishment, it has been announced by the state division of fish and game. Many of the young deer are taken by admiring people who hope to make pets of them. Taken from their mothers the young often die and even if they are raised they are too tame for their own safety.

Legislators Support Groups In This Region In Protests

The sportsmen of Nevada and Placer counties will continue to observe the opening of their fishing season on May 1.

Due to the efforts of Senator Jerrold Seawell and Assemblyman Allen G. Thurman, legislators from this district, a bill introduced by Senator Jesse Mayo which would change the opening of the season from May 1 to May 30 has been amended in the senate to exclude Placer and Nevada counties.

The bill as amended will include El Dorado, Amador, Calaveras and Tuolumne counties in a new district in which the season will open on May 30.

Sportsmen and civic groups in Placer and Nevada counties opposed the bill with the result these two counties were amended out of the bill, according to word from Assemblyman Thurman.

Morrison's operator's license was taken by the court for possible revocation by the state department of motor vehicles.

Happy Days, Annual School Play To Be Presented Tomorrow

Weeks of Work Culminated As Students Ready For Play

At the Masonic hall tomorrow evening, May 19, promptly at 8 o'clock people who have looked forward to seeing the play, Happy Days, by Glenn Hughes, will have an opportunity to witness the result of several weeks of hard work by the high school students and their director, Miss Anna Marie Munro.

A play has been given near the close of four years of high school studies for a number of years, as an annual custom by the graduating class. The proceeds, less expenses incurred, are donated as a parting gesture by those leaving school to assist in building up the student body fund.

Because of the small graduating class, the cast has been augmented this year by students of the other grades.

The play is a farce comedy and is filled with amusing situations that tend to become complicated before it is brought to a amicable conclusion.

The cast names and the characters they portray are as follows:

Mrs. Clark, Mary Pierce; Mr. Clark, Jack Tolles; Betty, Dorothy Barrett; Lucille, Tina Gini; Larry Day, Raymond Sabini; Herman Brown, Keith Weeden; Paul, Adolph Schmidt; Rose Mary Smith, Patricia Carson; Geneva Barbara Bolender; Mrs. Fuller, Lois Keetch.

The girls, named Mary, Arlene and Jessie were put on the train by a woman friend in Colorado to come to Reno where the mother was believed to have sought work. They are being temporarily cared for.

Boys Bound On Life Of Crime Are Nabbed Here

Stolen Car, Loaded Revolver Brings End To Brief Career

RETURNED TO HOMES

Marysville Youths Declared Prepared For Any Emergency

Two Marysville youths apparently bound for a life of crime, armed with a heavy calibre revolver and riding in a stolen car, were apprehended here last Thursday by State Traffic Sergeant C. E. McKeen and turned over to Marysville authorities to face the juvenile court. The names, because of their ages, 16 and 17, are being withheld.

The boys had removed the rear license plate from the car to defy identification and had it and the registration certificate secreted under the front seat.

The gun was fully loaded and all ready for action, McKeen said. They were nabbed at the Tahoe wye when the officer stopped them to investigate the missing plate.

NEW MANAGER AT TRUCKEE BANK ARRIVES FROM BAY

Yell Nobles, for the past several years in the inspection and auditing department of the Bank of America, has arrived here to become familiar with the local branch bank in anticipation of taking over the management on July 1 when C. B. White, the present manager retires.

C. Alex Clements, who came here several weeks ago to relieve White, has resigned from the bank to take a position with the Sun Life Assurance Company in Sacramento and while he still makes his home here has established an office in the capital.

Nobles, whose home was in Berkeley, has been in the banking business since 1927, when he was associated in the Cloverdale bank. When that institution was absorbed by the Bank of America in 1929, he entered the auditing and inspection department and has since been with the Bank of America.

The new official is married and the couple make their home on Donner Lake.

FAMOUS DIRECTOR VISITS IN TRUCKEE

Moke Kielhofer and enjoy a trout breakfast. Butler was interested in the proposed filming of a story of the Donner Party and may return to study conditions here.

Butler directed many of the best productions, among them Pig Skin Parade, White Fang and others in which he was assisted by Kielhofer.

80 Guests Attend Mother's Program At Local Church

Program Presented At Meet As Banquet Is Big Feature

More than 80 persons were in attendance at the Mother's Day banquet in the Community Church last Friday evening to enjoy a splendid dinner and a happy fellowship.

No small part of the enjoyment of the evening was due to the efforts and planning of Miss Evelyn Reynolds and the girls of the Sunday school who arranged the menu, the tables and served the meal.

A program of readings and music was presented in honor of the mothers. Betty Pearson had been asked to give a recognition to the fathers by reading Edgar Guest's poem, Only a Dad, and she delighted the audience and surprised her father by announcing that it was his birthday and she was dedicating it especially to him. Another happy feature of the program was the presence of a former pastor of the church, Rev. P. H. Willis and Mrs. Willis. Rev. Willis delighted his friends by his solos and also by speaking.

At the business session following the program the church and congregation voted unanimously to raise a minimum of $500 to recondition the church property.

EAGLES DONATE FLOWERS AT FETE

A much appreciated feature of the Mother's Day observance in Truckee was the flowers contributed by the Eagles Lodge to be presented to the mothers attending the church services. At each church each mother was presented with a beautiful corsage. William Englehart, Sr., acted as committeeman from the lodge to arrange for the flowers.

Truckee Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mathews of Sparks were Truckee visitors on Monday.

White First To Enter Race For 1940 Elections

Bank Official Will Retire From Post Here On July 1st

TO ENTER COUNTY RACE

Declares Intention Of Being Candidate For County Supervisor

Although his retirement as an official of the Bank of America becomes effective on July 1, Charles B. White, widely known local man and civic leader for the past 30 years will not definitely retire from public service unless the electorate in this district so decree.

This was indicated in an announcement made by White this week in which he declared he proposed to be a candidate for election to the office of supervisor from this district in 1940. White said his familiarity with the district, its problems and needs, together with his business ability give him the requisites for the office. He proposes that his be the first hat to be tossed into the 1940 political ring.

In connection with his retirement from the bank and his plans for the future, White made the following announcement:

"While I naturally regret losing the fine business relations which I have established as manager of the Bank of America in Truckee during the past few years, I sincerely trust these friendships will be continued for years to come and at this time I wish to express my appreciation for the loyalty and friendships that have been shown me in the bank.

"Although my retirement becomes effective July 1, I will continue to make Truckee my home and do not wish this retirement to be permanent. My home and interests are here and I feel that I can continue to be of service to the community.

"I propose to place my name before the voters next year as a candidate for county supervisor from this district. My familiarity with the varied problems and requirements of this region, I am confident, mark me as a fitting and capable candidate and my business administration with my knowledge of the district and my desire to serve it, will be of vital assistance in the supervisory capacity."

Cemetery Will Be Cleared Of Debris By Group Here

Members of the various lodges, fire department and boys' clubs will gather Saturday to clear the debris from the cemetery in preparation for Decoration Day. Owners of lots are asked to cooperate by clearing the graves so that the groups may haul the refuse away. A picnic lunch will be provided for those taking part in the project.

STUDENTS WILL BE AT BAY FAIR FOR NEVADA COUNTY DAY

Approximately 45 students of the two local schools and adults will leave here Saturday evening at 9:45 o'clock aboard Southern Pacific's train No. 9 for a specially conducted tour of the World's Fair at San Francisco on Sunday when Nevada County Day will be in progress.

A special car in which the local group will make the journey will be sidetracked in Sacramento to await the special train from Colfax bearing the Nevada City and Grass Valley delegations. A Mr. White will be in charge of the excursionists and arrange for their comfort.

The Truckee group will return late Sunday to arrive here Monday morning.

Ben Tonini is handling reservations for those not attending the schools and the principals of the two schools are making the arrangements for the student participation.

Low fares which include a visit to the fair as well as the round trip ticket may be learned from Tonini.

THE PARENT-TEACHER CREED

I Believe

That a Parent-Teacher Association should be concerned with all problems that relate to the welfare of the child in home, school, and community.

That its greatest object should be to interest all people in all children and to link in common purpose the home, the school, and all the other educative forces in the life of the child, to work for his highest good.

That it should learn firsthand all school conditions and all town conditions affecting the child.

That it should encourage all influences and conditions which make for the growth and safety of the child.

That it should work actively to supply the school and community needs by creating a public sentiment which will favor and provide good teachers, good school equipment, and adequate recreation for leisure time.

That it should give service to the home by training for parenthood and homemaking; and to the school, by adding parent power to school power.

That it should not be a means of entertainment, or charity, or criticism of school authority, but a cooperative, non-political, nonsectarian, noncommercial effort to produce American citizens who shall be strong in body, alert in mind, and sound in character, capable of perpetuating the best which has been developed in our national life.

I believe that the principles which guide the Parent-Teacher Association are the embodiment of social service, civic virtue, and patriotism. —Child Welfare Magazine (M.S.M.)

IN POLITICS, IT'S DIFFERENT

Everybody laughed when a Long Beach physician first broached his old age pension plan to the world a few years ago, while economists busily sharpened their pencils and figured out, to their satisfaction, that it didn't make sense.

But who's laughing now? Just the other day Florida memorialized Congress to pass the Townsend old age pension bill. This makes nineteen states which have gone on record in favor of the plan.

Economically, it still has the analysts baffled, but politically, it's a different story. Men of both parties have galloped up the slopes of Capitol Hill and right into Congress on the basis of their pledges to support the plan.

Who can say now that it doesn't make sense? It means jobs for many office-seekers, both for those who sincerely believe in it and for those who have callouses on their consciences. It means a life of promised ease and contentment to its supporters, and a nightmare to a large number of taxpayers.

At any rate, nobody's laughing now.

Certainly I Can Go!

POLITICALLY SPEAKING

by JOHN W. DUNLAP

SACRAMENTO, May 18 —(UP)—More pessimistic capitol observers would hate to bet more than a dime that the Legislature will quit before mid-June. Others believe that with enough fires built under long-winded orators, adjournment might be reached about the first weekend in June.

Several contributing factors have delayed the session so far. The budget battle was hardly expected to be so intense, particularly in the Assembly, where the Assembly has the biggest membership. Instead of going through a week or so, therefore, the budget was stalled nearly a month while a bi-partisan economy bloc whacked and chopped off $81,500,000 before shooting it over to the Senate.

As for the budget, the administration took faint hope when the Republican controlled Senate Rules Committee announced the personnel of the Committee to Redraft the Budget. Out of the five Republicans and four Democrats named, only two can be counted as real administration supporters, Robert Kenny of Los Angeles and Harry Westover, Santa Ana. Two other Democrats, Charles Deuel of Chico and Charles Brown of Shoshone are too conservative to be of much help to the Olson forces.

Kenny and Westover can be counted on to dissent strenuously but it is a safe bet the committee will recommend somewhere close to $30,000,000 in economies, in addition to the handling of a $72,000,000 item separately from the budget.

Now that San Francisco has its third and last Harbor Commissioner—E. A. McMillan—all the fuss can die down. Governor Olson had quite a time getting his nominations accepted by the Senate. First obstacle was when he named Harry See of The Railway Brotherhoods and Germaine Bulcke of the CIO, along with non-controversial and expert J. F. Marias. Backtracking, Olson withdrew See and named George Schlmeyer of the Grange to appease agriculture but met a storm of criticism over Bulcke, who was turned down by the Senate. McMillan, of The Railway Clerks, seemed headed for possible trouble when the Senate Rules Committee refused to recommend him but everything turned out nicely in the final vote, which was unanimous confirmation.

Gubernatorial aspirants for 1942—even though that's a long time distant—are blooming like spring flowers. Top-otch Republican bets at the moment are Attorney General Earl Warren and U. C. President "Bob" Sproul—both boasting big personal followings, but both coy about their future ambitions. Another "Bob"—Senator "Bob" Kenny of Los Angeles—is a likely Democratic contender. And three other members of the Senate—Jerry Seawell, John Phillips and Ed. Tickle—are looming large on the horizon as a result of their leadership in the fight for economy.

Legislators, of course, don't work for money. 'Twould be lese majesty to suggest it. But the lawmakers will draw their last paycheck for the year on May 19. And from that day on you can expect to hear more talk of adjournment!

Former President Herbert Hoover is still busily scurrying about, staging "grass roots" conclaves of good Republicans—and sowing the seed for an uninstructed delegation for California to the 1940 GOP Convention. And our spy advises that the same work is going on throughout all the Western States. Mr. Hoover will not be the candidate, however. He merely wants to have a voice in deciding who is.

There still remains the question of whether San Francisco will get local control of the harbor. The prospect is one too good.

State Relief Administrator H. Dewey Anderson is a pretty busy man these days, not the least of which was two recent appearances before the Legislature to explain and justify a request for more money to run the SRA through the rest of the biennium ending June 30.

When the request was first made in March for $4,050,000, the Republicans staved off a vote, said wait awhile and see what happens when the money runs out in May. Anderson volunteered a $550,000 slash in the request when it came time to vote and the final appropriation was $3,500,000.

STATE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION
Sacramento, California

Mr. Arthur H. Samish
Hotel Senator
Sacramento, California

Dear Mr. Samish:

In reply to your letter of April 9, 1939, the following is the interpretation of the law by the Board with respect to signs furnished by brewers and beer wholesalers:

1. A brewer or beer wholesaler may give, lend or rent a sign or signs not exceeding 630 square inches in area for interior use in on-sale premises. These signs may be constructed of any material. They may be placed anywhere within the four walls of on-sale premises and may be hung behind windows in such a manner as to be visible from outside of the premises. They may not be hung under awnings or canopies on the roof or outside of the four walls of the premises.

2. Brewers and beer wholesalers may furnish signs advertising their products to off-sale retail premises for interior or exterior use. The area for exterior signs is limited to ten per cent of the total area of the building visible for any one point.

3. Brewers and beer wholesalers may not pay money or anything of value, directly or indirectly, to retail licensees for the privilege of placing or painting a sign, advertisement or window display on or in any retail on-sale or off-sale premises.

We believe that this will furnish sufficient outline of the brewers' and beer wholesalers' major sign problems. If any additional problems arise

MAN HELD BY TAHOE OFFICERS AFTER SHOOTING SELF

TAHOE CITY, May 18.—Constable Harry Johnsen has received word that Rolphe Rolefsen, the young man taken into custody near Brockway last Thursday morning after he had said he accidentally shot himself in one leg, was well known to the eastern police where he served one three year term for auto thefts, according to the local officer.

Identification was established by fingerprints. Rolefsen told Officers Johansen and Gene Walker that he had "gone straight" for two or three years, but at the time of his arrest he had in his possession three guns, with but one shell. It was the bullet from this shell with which he was shot.

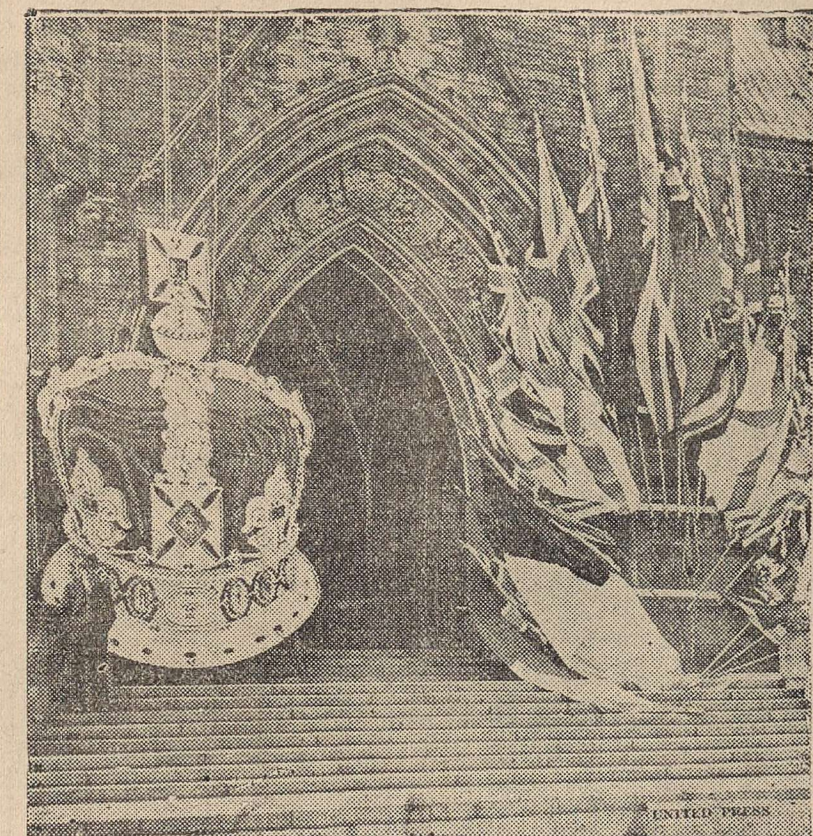

Johansen returned Saturday from Auburn where he took the suspect for investigation.

Rolefsen told the officers who investigated the shooting that he made a hobby of collecting guns.

He said he got off a train at Colfax Wednesday night where he was picked up by police and jailed only to be released the following morning and caught a ride to Tahoe where the shooting occurred about 11:30 a. m.

Forty-five children are in the intermediate room of the grammar school now with 15 eighth graders. This group will leave probably this week for their trip to the fair under the conducted school tour plan.

KING'S BEACH, May 18.—Preparations for the reception of about 500 people expected to attend the second annual North Tahoe Sports Club dance are being made at Cal Vada Lodge where the affair will be held Saturday night, May 20.

The Cal-Vada orchestra has been engaged to provide the music and valuable gifts have been chosen for fortunate attendants. The committee is working under the direction of Harold Paine, club president and Andy Johnson, secretary and indications are the affair will be a huge success.

DROWNING AVERTED AS THREE MEN AT GLOBIN'S RESCUED

TAHOE CITY, May 18.—A drowning tragedy was narrowly averted at Globin's Al Tahoe on Wednesday morning when three fishermen, not one of whom could swim, were rescued by friends after being in the water half an hour off Globin's pier clinging to the bottom of their cap-sized rowboat.

Two of the men were M. Fairchild of Placerville and C. O. Keaster of Lake Tahoe. The third man asked that for family reasons his name be withheld. The men are carpenters and are employed at Globin's in the remodeling of the resort.

Because of the rain last week they decided to go fishing, work being impossible.

Had it not been for the second boat, with fishermen friends of the three it is not known how the accident may have ended. The lake was choppy as the wind was blowing that day and it thought the boat may have been old or damaged in some way.

William Kennedy of Reno and Tahoma will open a new restaurant now under construction near Pine Crest on June 1. The main building which will take the place of the coffee shop run by the owner during the past three seasons, will be about 44 by 36 feet.

DIRECTORS ARE TOLD COST OF WATER SERVICE AT TAHOE

TAHOE CITY, May 18.— The meeting held by the directors of the Tahoe City Public Utility District in the Community hall on Saturday night was attended by a large representation of Tahoe voters and property owners.

Jerome Barieau, hydraulic engineer, retained by the directors, told the gathering the results of the first survey he had made of the water system and his ideas of how a better system and reduced insurance rates could be secured by some changes and improvements.

Among these were the installation of a six inch main on Lake street; five standard frost-proof hydrants also on Lake street and by putting a large emergency pump on the lakeshore for use in case of low water in the tanks.

An informal discussion was carried on after Barieau spoke. It is planned to have a final survey made this week then another public meeting will be called to secure the expression of opinion of the citizens of the district. A bond issue, either for $10,000 or $13,000 will then be voted to cover costs of the project.

After the luncheon 25 or 30 of the guests were conducted on a tour of the scenic points of interest around the lake by the school bus and driver Mrs. Stella Watson. JIMMY WORDEN IS RECORD HOLDER WITH LARGE TROUT

TAHOE CITY, May 18.— Many stories of big catches of fish in the Truckee and the lake continue to come in with the biggest yet taken from the Truckee river caught by James Worden of Ward Creek Camp ace skier of the Tahoe club, whose fishing resembles his skiing. Last Monday while fishing in the river below Squaw Creek with a five and a half ounce rod and a No. 10 hook, Jimmy caught a 33 inch trout that weighed 12½ pounds—the biggest German Brown from the Truckee river in years.

Major Jack Malcolm, while deep-line fishing in the lake Tuesday brought in two fine Mackinaws, one ten and one nine pounder.

As the gates at the Truckee dam are now open with 75 CFS of water leaving the lake, the big fish that had gathered in schools near the dam will likely go down the river. Several big fellows were taken on Tuesday morning after the gates were opened.

WITH YOUR ASSEMBLYMAN, THURMAN

(by Assemblyman Allen G. Thurman)

Labor and agriculture appear to be as far apart as the poles. As a member of the assembly committee on Labor and Capital your assemblyman has heard many arguments pro and con on bills introduced by labor organizations which would set up a wage schedule for farm labor. As meritorious as such legislation might appear to be, labor does not understand the problem of the farmer. Until such a time as the farmer can be guaranteed a fair profit for his product, it is useless to try and set up any wage he shall be required to pay. One of the bills affecting farm labor came up for a hearing in our committee last Monday evening. The bill would set up a farm labor board of three members to negotiate wage standards. While the author of the bill contended the matter would be voluntary, nevertheless the bill had several features which, in the writer's opinion, were objectionable.

A rather interesting feature of the bill was the fact that it was introduced by a school teacher and at the hearing witnesses favoring its passage consisted of a motion picture actress, a preacher, and a woman CIO labor union official. Not one of the proponents from the author to the C. I. O. labor leader knows or understands the problem of the farmer. The bill was held on file and may come up again this week. Quite naturally your representative cannot vote for such legislation. Before we can talk about an increase in farm wages the farmer must receive a fair profit for his product. And that is something that no farm labor commission, as the bill proposes, can solve.

Speaking of agriculture and the farmer the following editorial comment taken from The Pacific Rural Press, we believe will interest the readers of this newspaper, inasmuch as it comments on the members of the Assembly who refuse to be "rub-

"Veteran farm observers at Sacramento feel better about democracy these days.

"They not crisp action of the Legislature, such as its endorsement of the criminal syndicalism law. They see dog racing stepped on. They observe determination to examine the details of the budget carefully to find out how the money is to be spent, and by whom.

"In other words there is quite a bunch of militant legislators at Sacramento who refuse to be regimented, think for themselves, and apparently are sincerely and courageously trying to set our State in order. They "Farmers had expected this from the Senate, which is rural minded, but they have been pleased to observe a new degree of independence in the Assembly among men, some of whom have turned their backs on their prelection supporters and refuse to be rubber stamps.

"It does look like a hopeful sign Legislators are supposed to give that sort of representation. When they do it is democracy at work.

"We do not pretend to know what the final grist of the legislative mill will be but the attitude of the legislature feeds our hope that democracy has not abdicated."

Schonchin, whose father was hanged at the close of the war in 1873 for participation in the rebellion, was 92 years old. His retentive memory was of aid to the National Park Service in locating historic points of interest connected with the war, which was fought in part in the Lava Beds Monument area.

BANK OF AMERICA WINS REVERSAL OF RULING IN CAPITOL APPEALS COURT

An outstanding victory for Bank of America over the SEC was won in Washington, D.C., this week when the Court of Appeals reversed an adverse ruling by a lower court, according to C. B. White, manager of the local branch of the bank. The lower court had dismissed a suit brought by the bank to restrain the SCA from making public the confidential affairs of the bank's customers. The appeal court ordered the lower court to revoke its decree and added a criticism of the Commission for giving "pre trial publication of evidence labelled as 'believed to be true,' especially since the Commission was the tribunal charged with the judicial responsibility of weighing the evidence and assuring a thorough hearing.

In its decision, the appeal court

Anderson estimated continuation of dole relief through the next biennium would cost $120,000,000, an unpleasant thought for taxpayers and legislators alike. A lot of heads are worrying over the future of relief and there is no certainty of what the legislature will connot as to future policy.
